BY-LAW #1071 (1986)

Being a by-law to prohibit and regulate the
being at large or trespassing of animals,
other than dogs.

WHEREAS this by-law is passed pursuant to the authority conferred by paragraphs 3 to 6 of Section 210 of the Municipal Act, R.S.O.
1980, Chapter 302;

NOW THEREFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF PELHAM ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

(1)           No person shall, within any part of the Town of Pelham, permit any horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig or other cattle under his ownership or control to be at large, or to trespass upon the property of others.

(2)           Mr. Jeff E. Robbins is hereby appointed poundkeeper for purposes of this by-law.

(3)           Where any horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig or other cattle is at large or trespassing contrary to Section (1) of this by-law, the same shall be impounded by the poundkeeper.

(4)           The following lands, namely Part of Lot 99 of the former Township of Thorold, consisting of ten (10) acres and owned by the said Mr.
Jeff E. Robbins, are hereby designated as the enclosure for safekeeping of cattle impounded by the poundkeeper.

(5)           If any animal impounded by the poundkeeper pursuant to this by-law is not claimed within five (5) days after impounding, or if the damages, penalites and expenses imposed by this by-law or otherwise payable by law are not paid, the poundkeeper shall sell such animal.
